

Community Actors Theatre

Proudly Presents

Two wonderful plays running back to back as one show (2 for 1)

~ July 30 - August 29, 2010 ~

~ Fri. & Sat. at 8:00pm. Sunday, Matinee at 3:00pm

$12.00 for Seniors, Students, Military, Disabled, $14.00 General

“Here I am”

By Floyd Alexander

Seven remarkable women from classic literature and history, on stage together, for an evening of revealing conversation, revelation and confirmation of their contribution to the eras in which they lived. In this compelling one-act drama play, these women exhibit wisdom, understanding and just plain grit as they dramatically present how they overcame crippling social restraints to achieve their independence. Mr. Floyd Alexander is the author of several plays.

“The Pact”

By Livia Krancberg

In the Jewish tradition of the importance of education through each generation, this stage presentation potently displays the struggle and final achievement of two friends who make a pact to succeed despite all the odds against them. Mrs. Livia Krancberg is a Holocaust survivor, who has written several plays.

To Reserve: (619) 264-3391 www.communityactorstheatre.com

Community Actors Theatre - 2957 54th Street – San Diego, CA 92105

Additional parking across the street at Calvary Lutheran Faith on 54th Church (south side lot).